

dolphins, dolphins, dolphins

dolphins, dolphins, dolphins**

Wild Hawaiian spinners, bottlenose, Spotted Bimini dolphins--- do you want to know what it's like to swim with them in the wild?

join Donna Decker as she shows DVD's and reads from her poetry and essays about her adventures swimming with these extraordinary beings in the pacific ocean off Kona, Hawai'i and the Atlantic ocean of Bimini (site of the Atlantis highway) this past year while she was on seminars with the renowned, joan ocean-- dolphin researcher and communicator

Sunday, February 22nd 5:30-7:30 pm at abundance wellness center

(In the woodcrest office complex--across from the public pool-- 325 john Knox rd, bld t, suite 1)

Dr. Donna Decker is a graduate of FSU's Ph.D. program in creative writing, a former award-winning professor at Uw--Stevens Point, writer of numerous published works in poetry and essays, a member of the java girls poetry troupe, and teaches writing at FSU, we hope you will join us for this lively presentation and potluck.

please bring food or drink to share.

(You'll be home before the academy awards start) for more info call 850.545-3978 or 850.524-9448

Free event. Donations accepted.