Moving Beyond Limiting Beliefs -

Often we think we are living in alignment with our purpose and passion, and wonder why we can't seem to get our desired results. This session will provide the necessary tools to move beyond your limiting beliefs by identifying distractions that prevent you from producing the results you want. This is a powerful, "no nonsense" approach that will provide you with the tools to facilitate breakthroughs in yours, a participant's or client's life.

Friday, May 19, 2017 - 9:30am - approx. 7:00pm

Saturday, May 20, 2017 - 9:30am - approx. 7:00pm

Sunday, May 21, 2017 - 9:30am - Noon

Power, Empathy and Tone of Voice Concepts -

This session combines three powerful concepts. You will learn how tone of voice impacts and solidifies limiting beliefs and sets us up to expect the same result, as our unconscious beliefs would predict. The "power" segment explores our 'need' to feel strong and powerful, how we often ineffectively fill that need, and how to channel that need into the genuine strength and power of love and vulnerability. Finally, during the "empathy" portion of the weekend, you will learn how to fine-tune your ability to deeply feel what another must be feeling. This is an extremely effective way to end all conflicts; from your closest relationships to someone you just met. In addition to delving into these concepts for yourself, you will learn how to effectively coach and facilitate these three concepts.
